Victoria Faulkner Women's Centre

Victoria Faulkner Women's Centre is an incorporated, non-profit organization operated by women for women. VFWC provides a warm, caring, nonjudgmental and confidential atmosphere for women while giving them access to many needed services, such as:

- Women's Advocate
- Library Materials
- Lay counseling
- Programs
- Community Events:
 - Take Back the Night
 - International Women's Day
 - Sexual Assault Prevention Month
 - December 6th Memorial
- Healthy Moms, Healthy Babies
- Community Kitchen
- TGIT Films and Activities

The Summer 2007 Moms & Kids Program is a recreational program for isolated and low-income moms and kids up to age 8. Summer activities are held for mothers and children who normally wouldn't have the opportunity to access programming or services in the community.

It is an opportunity to enjoy nature, meet others, talk, eat, play & laugh.
